

Merry Christmas

FROM THE DESK OF

Alex Patterson

More than eight decades ago, a widow asked her pastor if there would be a place for her to live out her years in comfort and security. That pastor was my grandfather, Rev. Frank McElory, Sr. His answer and actions were grounded in Scripture: 1 Timothy 5:5 – “She who is truly a widow, left all alone, has set her hope on God and continues in supplications and prayers night and day.”

“Is there a place for me?”

With your help, we answer that question every day at Presbyterian Homes of Georgia for 1,300 residents at our six campuses around the state. Our staff answer it by providing compassionate care as part of our mission to be a Christian ministry. And you answer that question with your generosity. Your gifts through the Caring Hands Fund ensure that when a resident has a need, we can meet it. Thank you!

As you consider your end-of-year contributions, please keep us top of mind. Our residents are asking you to make sure they have a place to live out their years.

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Alex Patterson

Alex Patterson, CEO

PRESBYTERIAN HOMES
OF GEORGIA